VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

Mrs. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday Evening, Dec. 7, 1866.

Col. Russ' Resolutions.

The resolutions of Col. Russ, of Wake, presented in the House to-day, endorsing the loyalty of the people of North Carolina to the Union and the General Government, were opportune and demanded by the continued and persevering efforts of a small portion of our native population, known as "Red Strings," Holdenites, or Radicals, to blacken the reputation of our people and the character of the State, in the estimation of the North. These reiterations have been so frequently repeated of late and are made so much capital of by those in the North whose enmity still burns against our people, that it is time we had an official denial, made by those who know our people and are fresh from them.

Military Dictation.

The rumor has been afloat for several days, that his Excellency, Gov. Worth has received a recent order issued by Gen. Sickles, prior to his being relieved from the Military Department, in which he asserts that corporal punishment shall no longer be administered for cause in this Department.

We have not been able to visit the Executive Office for some days, but learn from the same rumor that Governor Worth is in correspondence with the President upon the subject.—Whether there is any truth in the rumor we cannot say, but our people may take it for granted, that if the report be true, Gov. Worth has not been backward in calling the attention of the proper authorities to it. We are not disposed to give the matter full credence.—Such an order from Gen. Sickles would be so foreign to the doctrines of the Peace proclamation, that we cannot conceive how he should have fallen in with such an idea.

We have heard this rumor for some days, but thought it most prudent not to allude to it, and would not now, but we observe allusion to it in our exchanges. If it be true, the Governor will no doubt, communicate the facts to the Legislature at an early day.

The Fayetteville and Coal Field Railroad.

On yesterday we felt disappointed when we learned that the bill before the House to extend this Road from Egypt to some point to and beyond the N. C. Railroad, had been defeated on its third reading by a vote of 45 to 58, instead of 15 to 58 as was incorrectly printed. We congratulate the friends of this important enterprise upon the more favorable action of the House to-day. At an early hour, a re-consideration of the vote was had and carried, when the House was addressed forcibly in its support by Col. Cowan, of New Hanover, and Mr. Stone, of Nash. We learn the speech of Col. Cowan clearly demonstrated its necessity and importance, and Mr. Stone's speech was to the point. On taking the vote the bill passed its third reading in the House by a vote of 68 to 40.

The efforts of that liberal minded Commoner, Mr. McKay, of Cumberland, have been assiduously devoted to this enterprise. His able speech on another day was very effective. But what he has done for his own section, he will be ready to do for any other section of the State in promoting internal improvements.

We cannot doubt the wisdom of the House in the passage of the bill. The recuperation of the State and our people, can only be effected by extending and completing our Railroads, and it offers almost the only prospect of making us able to pay our debts, personal or State.

Mr. Logan.

Mr. Logan, the Commoner from Rutherford, has been absent from his seat in the Legislature for some days. His whereabouts has been a matter of inquiry. We have heard it several times stated that Mr. Logan was in Washington City connudling round. We have heard others say that he had gone home to attend his Courts. Where is Mr. Logan? His presence is needed here in the Legislature. The people expect every man to be at his post, unless necessity compels them to be absent. This may be the case with Mr. Logan, but the anxiety manifested by some to know where Mr. Logan is, prompts us to ask, where is Mr. Logan?

ARREST FOR CIRCULATING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—A man named Patrick C. Oats, residing and keeping a shop at Magnolia, Duplin County, N. C., who had been for some time suspected of vending counterfeit money, was arrested by Deputy Marshal Kehoe, under a warrant from U. S. Commissioner Lehman, of Newbern, and brought to Raleigh for examination. The testimony was thought sufficient by the Commissioner to commit him, and he was bailed for $1,000 to answer at the next U. S. Circuit Court in this city.

MAYORALTY.—We have heard it rumored for several days that Col. Harrison, who has filled the office of Mayor in this city for a number of years, has determined to decline a re-election at the next election. We have heard the names of C. B. Root and W. D. Haywood, Esqs., mentioned in connection with the office.

MAYORALTY.—Several names for the Mayoralty of Wilmington, have been proposed, but we observe a city meeting is proposed to nominate a suitable person, so as to avoid any conflict or division in the selection.

BUILD THE RAILROADS.—The following facts from the Wadesboro Argus furnish a good argument for building Railroads:

"GOOD PRICE FOR LAND.—We learn that a body of four hundred acres of land, the greater part of it uncleared, located within three miles of Old Hundred, (Trollinger's Depot,) Wil., Char. and Ruth. Railroad, in Richmond county, was sold one day last week, at public auction, for $7,000 (or $17,50 per acre,) gold cash. That land, before the railroad was projected to run through Richmond, could have been bought for considerably less than $5 an acre.

The question arising on the substitute, Mr. Paschall moved it be laid on the table. Upon this motion Mr. Cowles called the Yeas and Nays and the motion prevailed by a vote of 24 Yeas to 18 Nays.

The bill for the relief of such persons as may have suffered from the destruction of court records or other papers in the several counties of the State and for other purposes, came up and on motion of Mr. Cowles the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Leave of absence was granted to the following gentlemen: Messrs. Harris, of Franklin, Hall, Wiggins, Paschall and the Principal Clerk, Mr. Engelhardt.

On motion of Mr. Paschall the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, Dec. 7, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. A. Smedes, D. D., of the Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Kenan, the use of the Commons Hall was granted to the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow evening, for the delivery of a lecture by Hon. Z. B. Vance.

Mr. Moore, of Hertford, presented a memorial from John H. Wheeler, of Washington, asking that he be paid the sum of one thousand dollars for services rendered in procuring the scrip appropriated by Congress for the establishment of an Agricultural College in North Carolina. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Holderby, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to raise a joint select committee on so much of the Governor's message as relates to the office of Comptroller.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Davis; a resolution that the committee on Agriculture inquire whether any changes in the laws of the State are necessary to insure a better labor system, and whether additional legislation is needed to perfect the laws aguinst vagrancy. Adopted.

By Mr. Jenkins of Granville, a bill to incorporate the Henderson and Western Railroad Company.

By Mr. Rountree; a bill placing Physicians services and accounts on an equal dignity with Bonds.

By Mr. Everett; a bill to regulate and change the Fees of county solicitors.

By Mr. Moore of Hertford; a bill in aid of the Literary Fund.

By Mr. Baker; a bill for the relief of Henry Williams of Edgcombe county.

By Mr. Jordan; a bill concerning surveyors.

The Joint committee to wait on Gov. Worth and inform him of his election reported that His Excellency had designated Saturday the 15th of December, as the day on which he would appear before the Assembly and take the oaths of office.

A bill to amend the charter of the Washington Toll Bridge Company, was amended, and passed its second and third readings, under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Moore, of Hertford, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which was rejected, on yesterday, the bill to enable the Western Railroad Company to complete its road from the Coalfields in Chatham county, to some point on the N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Cowan addressed the House in support of the motion, and expressed surprise that the bill should have been defeated on yesterday, when it had passed its second reading on the day before, without objection. Mr. C. argued forcibly to show the advantage resulting from the inception and extension of the Internal Improvement system and the benefits which would accrue to the State at large from the completion of the Western Road. The bill he said, did not propose to increase the indebtedness of the State one iota. It merely asked an exchange of its own bonds, idle in the State Treasury, for stock in the road.

Mr. Stone (who voted against the bill on yesterday) also advocated the motion being satisfied, from the explanation made by Col. Cowan, that the bill ought to pass.

The question recurring, the motion to reconsider prevailed. The bill then passed its third reading, yeas 64, nays 40.

A bill to repeal section 6, chapter 48, Revised Code, and a bill to amend an act to provide hands to work on the public roads, passed their third reading.

Mr. Russ, by leave, introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, this General Assembly has unmistakable evidence that there are persons in the State who consider themselves interested in misrepresenting the condition of things and the state of public sentiment here with reference to the Federal government; and whereas, it is understood that these misrepresentations are used in Washington city, where the voice of the people of North Carolina cannot be heard; and whereas, the silence of this Assembly, representing the whole people of the State, and familiar with their views, may be used to the disparagement of the community, therefore

Be it Resolved, That the charges of disloyalty, of persecution towards those styling themselves the original Union men and of the partial administration of justice are false, and known by those in our midst, who make them, to be without the shadow of foundation.

Resolved, That no better evidence of the law-abiding character of our people can be afforded than their honorable forbearance towards native citizens who utter, publicly, the grossest slanders on the land of their birth, and for their own selfish ends, would invoke upon a people struggling with adversity, and assiduously devoting themselves to the arts of peace, the stringent measures justified only in cases of actual treason.

Resolved, That this Assembly deems it due to itself and to the people whom it represents to record, in this solemn form, its sense of the injustice attempted to be done by unscrupulous partizans, to a community as devoted to peace and to the cause of law and order, and to all their Constitutional obligations, State and Federal, as any in the United States.

Mr. Davis said he was gratified at the introduction of these resolutions. The condition of North Carolina was an unhappy one. She had emerged from the late struggle poor in all else but honor, an honor hitherto maintained untarnished. He adverted to slanders upon the State—accusations of disloyalty among her people, based in a measure upon their tender reverential memory of fathers, sons and brothers who had perished in the war. These accusations as well as those of harsh treatment to Union men were being used to the prejudice of our people by those who wished to see the Southern States remanded to the condition of Territories. It was time that these calumniators should be rebuked and the character of our citizens vindicated from the aspersions.

Mr. Crawford of Rowan, said (substantially) that W. W. Holden and his coadjutors were the only traitors in the State. If there were no hell already, he for one, would be willing that he should be taxed to create a hell for those who were unwilling to subscribe and endorse the resolutions pending.

Mr. Lyon rose to a point of order. Such language he said was unbecoming any member of the House.

Mr. Crawford here observed, that he had said all he wished to say. Mr. Blair moved to lay the resolutions on the table, which was not agreed to.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Baker, Barden, Boyd, Bowe, Bradsher, Bright, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Clements, Cowan, Crawford of Macon, Crawford of Rowan, Dargan, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Freeman, Galloway, Gambril, Garriss, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton of Wa, Horton of Wa, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Judkins, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lutterloh, May, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Moore of Hertford, Morehead, Morrisett, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry of Carteret, Perry of Wake, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rogers, Rosebro, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Simpson, Smith of Duplin, Smith of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Umsted, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Williams of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Womble, York—88.

YEAS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Beasley, Blair, Blythe, Garrett, Hinnant, Jenkins of Gaston, Jenkins of Granville, Jordan, Lyon, Moore of Chatham, Morton, Rountree, Scoggin, Teague, Vestal, Williams of Yancey—18.

Mr. Blair offered the following amendment.

Resolved further, That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that the persons who instigated the late war, [the men who fired the Southern mind and inflamed the Southern heart, are unworthy of the confidence of the people of North Carolina, and should never be allowed to vote or hold office.

(The reading of the amendment was received with hisses. The disorder was promptly checked by the Speaker.)

Mr. Blair asked the Yeas and Nays on the amendment, but the call was not sustained.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Russ addressed the House in support of the resolutions. He had introduced them in good faith. He had reason to believe that an effort was being made to secure at the hands of Congress, the overthrow of existing State Governments and the establishment of Territorial Governments in their stead. He believed that there existed no people more loyal than those of this State, and thought her maligners should be silenced and the fair fame of the State authoritatively vindicated by its Representatives.

Mr. Blythe, regretted the introduction of the resolutions. He could not conscientiously support them because they were untrue, in that they asserted that the Union men of the State had not been persecuted. People in other sections of the State might be loyal. He did not undertake to question their loyalty. The reverse of this was true to a considerable extent in his section of the State.

Mr. Davis, suggested that gentlemen representing disloyal constituencies, if there were any such, might support the resolutions with a proviso specially excluding their counties from its purview.

Mr. Freeman, was for peace and harmony and deprecated the re-opening of old wounds and the agitation of old differences.

Mr. Lyon, expressed similar sentiments. He regarded the resolutions as a fire-brand, a "sensation" movement merely, calculated to injure rather than benefit the people, and the State. He moved an indefinite postponement. Not agreed to.

Mr. Lowe moved to adjourn. Not agreed to.

The resolutions were amended, on motion of Mr. Lyon, by inserting, in the last of the series, after the words "law and order," the words, "and union."

The resolutions, as amended were then adopted as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allen, Autry, Baker, Barden, Boyd, Bowe, Bradsher, Bright, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Clements, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Dargan, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Freeman, Galloway, Gambril, Garriss, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Harper, Henderson, Hinnant, Hodnett, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Hutchison, Jones, Judkins, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lutterloh, May, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Moore, of Hertford, Morehead, Morton, Morrisett, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Carteret, Perry, of Wake, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rosebro, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Simpson, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Sudderth, Trull, Turnbull, Umstead, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Pitt, Womble and York—85.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Beaseley, Blair, Blythe, Garrett, Jenkins, of Granville, Jordan, Lyon, Moore, of Chatham, Scoggin, Stevenson, Teague, Vestal and Williams, of Yancey—14.

Mr. Stevenson [said he voted in the negative not because he believed the people of the State disloyal, but because he thought the resolutions should not have been introduced.

The House then adjourned.

[A vote was had to-day for five councillors of State, but the result was not announced before the adjournment.]

Emigration to the South.

Considerable interest has recently been excited respecting the subject of European emigration to the South. Information from foreign sources and from the North indicates that the numerous and important advantages of soil and climate presented by the South, are having their effect in determining the course of those contemplating a change of residence, with a view to bettering their fortunes. Texas appears to be just now the favorite destination for emigrants. It is stated that within a short time past more than 6,000 foreigners, many of them Scotch farmers, have left Liverpool for Texas. Numerous emigration movements, generally embracing small but valuable accessions to our population, are nnounced as tending towards various sections of the South.

It is evident that our interest dictate the offering of every inducement that can accelerate an influx of mechanics, artisans, laborers and argriculturists. Our advantages for profitable employment of emigrants are unrivalled, and our need of skilled and industrious labor unprecedented. We must look chiefly to the thrifty, capable and industrious European settlers for that agricultural and mechanical development which our condition so imperatively demands, and of which we have such ample assurance in the extent, fertility and resources of our section. Great material triumphs inevitably await the South, and though postponed by the delays and obstacles interposed by malignant party and sectional feeling they cannot be long deferred, provided we are earnest and energetic in making known to the world the incomparable inducements to residence and business in the South.—Rich. Examiner.

PAY OF CONGRESSMEN.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, is resolute in his determination to reduce the pay of members of Congress to the old rate. To-day he introduced another resolution directing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the reduction of the salary from $5,000 to $3,000, and requiring all members who had drawn the excess over $3,000 to refund the same.

LECTURE ON SATURDAY NIGHT.—It will be seen by the notice of the Young Men's Christian Association, that Gov. Vance has consented to deliver a Lecture on Saturday evening next in the Commons Hall, in aid of its funds for the poor. The subject, "All about it," will strike the reader as a quaint theme, but we are sure he will come as near telling "all about it" as the next one, in a manner almost inimitable, if not entirely unapproachable. We need not ask for a full House. The warm affection borne personally for the Lecturer in this community, his ability to do the subject justice, as well as the importance of the object, will draw out a large crowd. Let every one go.

THE EXHIBITION.—A large audience of our citizens and members of the Legislature, last evening, were very agreeably and highly entertained with the exhibition given at the Chapel of the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind Institution, by the pupils and teachers, under the direction of Mr. Palmer the Principal. The progress of the blind pupils in music, and all the students, in the various branches taught, is highly satisfactory.

THE DENTAL ASSOCIATION.—The North Carolina Dental Association, which convened according to appointment, in this city on the 5th inst., held their meeting at the Exchange Hotel, Dr. B. F. Arrington presiding, adjourned on last evening after a very harmonious and interesting session of two days, during which time essays were read and various professional subjects were discussed. The chief participants were Drs. Howlet, Hunter, Hubbard, Fleming, Babcock, Turner, and Crawford.

We learn that much business of importance to the public as well as of interest to the Dental profession, was transacted by the Association, for the improvement and advancement of the profession in North Carolina. We have seen a synopsis of a bill to be presented to the Legislature entitled "An act to incorporate the North Carolina Dental Association, and for the establishment of a Dental Board of Examiners," which we think favorably of and hope it will be passed by the Legislature, believing, as we do, that good results will be realized by every community in the State where the services of the dental profession are rendered. Every advance movement for the cultivation and elevation of the standard and excellence of the Dental, as well as other professions in our State, should be favored and appreciated by the public and sustained by the Legislators. A good move in the right direction is always commendable, and should be respected and fortified.

The next meeting of the Association will be held at High Point the third Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, in June next.

CRAVEN.—Henry R. Bryan, Esq., of Newbern, will deliver an address before the Craven County Agricultural and Vine Growing Society of that County during the next County Court week.—We are glad to see the spirit manifested by the people of that County in agriculture and grape raising.

A TOURNAMENT will come off in Newbern on the 27th of December next.

RETURNED.—Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, who has been on a trip to Europe in relation to Railroad matters, has returned. His trip, it appears, was not unprofitable, yet not so successful as desired.

Can the President be Divested of the Pardoning Power?

The bill, which has been set on its travels through the two Houses, for repealing the amnesty section of the treason act, is futile and nugatory, like the section it aims to repeal.—The President derives his pardoning power, not from any act of Congress, but from the Constitution; and no legislation can either strengthen or impair it. We expressed this opinion yesterday; on which the Evening Post, in the superabundance of its wisdom, delivers itself as follows:

We are surprised to read in a morning journal an assertion that the President may continue to issue pardons to rebels before trial, under the general pardoning power conferred by the Constitution. Of course this is absurd. He has no such authority. He is empowered to grant pardons after trial and conviction, but not before.

"Surprise" is the daughter of ignorance, as the Post will, in this case at least, presently be in a position to see. That form of pardon to which we give the name of amnesty always precedes conviction. That amnesties are concluded under the constitutional authority to pardon was the opinion of Hamilton in discussing that subject in the Federalist; an opinion repeated and endorsed by Story in his commentaries on the Constitution, an opinion officially acted on by Washington in the case of the whiskey insurgents in Pennsylvania, whom he amnestied without Congressional authorization. In the constitution of the French republic of 1848, the amnesty power was expressly excepted out of the pardoning power of the executive, and reserved to the legislature, which shows that, without such express exception, it would have been included under the general power to grant pardons.

In amnesties pardon precedes conviction from the nature of the case. Individual pardons may precede or follow conviction, according to the pleasure of the President. When that great and eloquent lawyer, William Wirt, was Attorney General, he advised the President on this point as follows: "On the second point, whether pardon can precede condemnation, I am of opinion that the President may if he chooses, grant such pardon. There is nothing in the terms in which the power of pardon is granted, which requires that it shall be preceded by a sentence of conviction on the verdict of a jury. There is nothing in the force of the term pardon, which implies a previous condemnation. A pardon presupposes an offence and nothing more. If the party confesses his guilt" (and the application for a pardon is a confession,) "every degree of certainty as to the fact of the perpetration of the offence is gained which a trial could gain; because if he were arraigned and pleaded guilty, no jury would be empannelled, and no evidence would be heard in the case, but judgment would be entered on his own plea."—(Opinions of Attorneys-General, vol. I. p. 251.) John M. Berrian, another great lawyer, when Attorney-General, advised the President against the frequent interposition of the pardoning power previous to trial; taking the constitutional authority for granted, and resting his advice solely on expediency. "It is not denied," he said, that cases may exist in which such interposition would be proper; and it is admitted that the case presented, on the evidence furnished by the memorialist, is a strong one."—(Opinions Attorneys-Gener I, 723. Felix Grundy, another very distinguished Attorney-General, also asserted the pardoning power in the utmost latitude, as to the time, form, and manner in which it should be exerted. "The pardoning power," he said, "given by the Constitution is plenary, cases of impeachment only excepted. Its exercise, and the mode of its exercise, are placed without condition or limitation, wholly in the discretion of the President. (Opinions, &c., II. 1,242.)"

The blunder of the Evening Post would not have deserved all this array of authorities, if the doctrine it assumes were not acted on by Congress, and it was used as a weapon against the President. It is on this ground that we feel called upon to contest it, point by point, and to make our refutation of it superfluously conclusive. It was begotten by a perverse party spirit, and is born of ignorance.—N. Y. World.

MARTIAL LAW IN MISSOURI.—A telegram from St. Louis says that Governor Fletcher has declared martial law in Ray and Platte counties of that State, and has marched a strong force to those counties. Some disturbances have occurred lately growing out of political excitement, and horse thieves, robbers and murderers infest the frontiers of Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska, but detectives are there at work. It is expected they will pick them all up.

The Confederate navy-yard at Charlotte, N. C., was sold at auction on Monday by Major Johnston, United States Quartermaster. The sum realized was about $4,000. One of the principal purchasers was Mr. John Wileks, a son of Commodore Wilkes.

NEGRO SOLDIERS FOR LIBERIA.—A company of black soldiers are now organizing in Philadelphia to emigrate to Liberia. The American Colonization Society has purchased a clipper ship of 1,000 tons for the transportation of the soldiers. Applicants for emigration are daily received.

Brigham Young buried his twenty-fourth wife on Wednesday and married his forty-fifth on Friday. They say he oscillates between a crape hat-band and white gloves.

U. S. SENATOR FROM FLORIDA.—Governor Marvin was re-elected United States Senator from Florida, on Saturday. He will remain at home until the question of Southern representation is settled.

Dr. Peters, who killed Confederate General Earl Van Dorn for seducing his wife, had a quarrel with one Lubby in Arkansas last week, and cut him so badly that he is not expected to live.

The sloop R. R. Parker, Captain Hill, of Currituck, N. C., was seized yesterday by the U. S. Marshall, having been libeled by W. J. Poole, agent for the Board of Underwriters and contractor for selling the wrecked goods of the steamer Sheridan in this city.—Norfolk Virginian, 4th.

WRECKERS ON THE CAROLINA COAST.—It is stated by the N. Y. Times, that the steamer Sheridan wrecked some time since on Body Island, was plundered by armed desperadoes, both black and white.

The amount thus lost is estimated at the enormous sum of $200,000.

The Times calls upon North Carolina to interfere to prevent the recurrence of such an outrage in the future, and expresses its amazement at so barbarous a proceeding.

On this we have to remark, that the freedmen were there by virtue of an act, which was contrary to the policy of North Carolina, and with which she has nothing to do.

Over these people she can exercise no adequate control, and the responsibility in this matter, so far as the negroes are concerned, is with the Bureau.

Then as to the white men, Bankers they are called, we have to inform the Times that these people got a part of their education from Butler who organized a State government for North Carolina, after the fall of Hatteras, out of this "loyal" population; and for this the Old North State cannot be held responsible.—Day Book

Mexican Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.

The correspondence of the Secretary of State with Minister Bigelow on the subject of Mexican affairs, shows his anxiety for the French to evacuate the country according to the Emperor's programme. Mr. Seward, to Minister Campbell, Oct. 20th, in giving instructions mentions some principles which may be safely laid down in regard to the policy which the Government of the United States expects him to pursue. His communications must be made to President Juarez, and in no event must he officially recognize Prince Maximillian or any one else, without having first reported to the State Department, and receiving instructions from the President of the United States. He must abstain from obstructing or embarrassing the departure of the French.

The design of the Government of the United States in regard to the future of Mexico, is not conquest, or aggrandizement of the United States by purchases of land or dominion, but, on the other hand, they desire to see the people of Mexico relieved from all foreign military intervention, to the end, that they may resume the conduct of their own affairs under the existing republican government, or such other form of government as being left in the enjoyment of perfect liberty, they shall determine to adopt in the exercise of their own free will, by their own act, without dictation from any foreign country, and of course, without any dictation from the United States. He must enter into no stipulation with the French commanders, or with Maximillian, or any other party which shall have a tendency to counteract or oppose the administration of Juarez, or hinder or delay the restoration of the authority of the Republic.

On the other hand, it may possibly happen that the President of the Republic of Mexico may desire the good office of the U. States, or even some effective proceedings on our part to favor and advance the pacification of a country so long distracted by foreign combined with civil war, and thus gain time for the re-establishment of national authority, upon principles consistent with a republican and domestic system of government. It is possible, moreover, that some disposition might be made of the land and naval forces of the United States without interfering within the jurisdiction of Mexico, or violating the laws of neutrality, which would be useful in favoring the restoration of law, order and republican government, in that country. Mr. Campbell is instructed to refer any important propositions on the subject of reorganization and restoration of the republican government in Mexico, as may arise to the State Department, for the information of the President. The General of the U. States possesses, already, discretionary authority as to the location of the forces of the United States in the vicinity of Mexico. The President invited Gen. Grant to accompany Mr. Campbell as an adviser, but it not being convenient to go, Lieut. Gen. Sherman was designated. The cable dispatch from Mr. Seward to Mr. Bigelow, dated November 23rd, appears in the correspondence in which Mr. Seward instructs him to say to the French government that ours is surprised and affected with deep concern, by the announcement, now made for the first time, that the promised recall of one detachment of French troops from Mexico in November current, had been postponed by the Emperor. Mr. Seward instructs him further to say, that in full reliance upon at least a literal performance of the Emperor's existing agreement, we have taken measures, while expecting the anticipated French evacuation, to co-operate with the republican government of Mexico, for promoting the pacification of that country, and for an early and complete restoration of proper constitutional authority as a part of these measures. Mr. Campbell, our Minister, attended by Lieut. Gen. Sherman, has been sent to Mexico in order to confer with President Juarez on subjects which are deeply interesting to the United States, and of vital importance to Mexico. You will therefore state to the Emperor's government that the President sincerely hopes and expects that the evacuation of Mexico will be carried into effect, with such conformity to the existing agreement as the inoportune complication which it calls for will allow. Mr. Campbell will be advised of that complication. Instructions will be issued to U. S. military forces of observation to await, in every case, special instruction from the President. This will be done with confident expectation that the telegraph or mail may reasonably bring us a satisfactory resolution from the Emperor in reply to this note. You will assure the French government that the United States, while they seek the relief of Mexico, desire nothing more earnestly than to preserve peace and friendship with France, nor does the President allow himself to doubt that what has been determined in France, most inauspiciously as we think, has been decided upon inadvertently, without full reflection upon the embarrassment it must produce here, and without any design to relieve the expeditionary forces in Mexico, beyond the full period of eighteen months or as stipulated for the complete evacuation.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."
